Miss Beverly Krebs Weds Fred Schaub At Nuptial Mass At OLV Church

Miss Beverly Louise Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krebs, of Pascagoula became the bride of Private First Class Fred Delmas Schaub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schaub of Moss Point in a double ring ceremony at Our Lady of Victories Catholic church in Pascagoula, Saturday, July 12 at 7 o'clock in the morning, with the Reverend P. J. Carey officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a dress of white jersey with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white roses.

The attendant on the bride was her youngest sister, Joyce, who wore a cream beige jersey with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mr. Schaub, in the full dress uniform of the United States Marine Corps, was attended by his brother, William H. Schaub of Moss Point.

Sister Ludovicia presided at the organ, played the traditional wedding marches, and served as accompanist to Miss Edwina Irving of Moss Point in her beautiful singing of "Ave Maria," and "Come to My Heart."

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the table was laid with a handsome handmade Irish lace tablecloth, services of crystal and a centerpiece of white carnations.

The three-tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom was made by the groom's father.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Schaub left for a short honeymoon trip to Jacksonville, Florida where the former is taking additional Marine Corps training. Mrs. Schaub's traveling costume was of pink linen with accessories of navy and white.

Mrs. Schaub is a graduate of

Our Lady of Victories school and was employed as secretary to Otto Karl Weisenburg.

Mr. Schaub attended the Moss Point high school until he entered the Marine Corps.

SWIMMING PARTY

Girl Scout Troop 3 had a swimming party on Wednesday, July 9, at the Moss Point pool under the leadership of Mrs. N. A. Wigle. She was assisted by Mesdames V. H. Mears, D. G. Peattie and M. F. Peterson. Dixie Mears was a guest. A picnic lunch was served at the Eastlawn Methodist church before the swimming party.

GRANDMA KEEPS CLIMBING

Roanoke, Va. — AP — For 26 years "Grandma Cora" Clemmer, now 76, has scaled Tinker mountain on Easter Monday and she expects to make a lot more trips.

Young people of her church who now accompany her are children of those with whom she started the traditional hike.

To the question, "How do you keep so young?", Mrs. Clemmer's answer is: "I don't. It is the young people I associate with who keeps me young."

Magnesium is only two-thirds as heavy as aluminum and only one-fourth as heavy as steel.

My dearest darling Brother,

Please forgive me for not writing. I don't know if you got Mama's letter or not, but I have been in the hospital. Just in case you didn't get the letter, I will give you all the gruesome details one more time.

For about two weeks I couldn't keep anything down. I was always burning up and throwing up. I kept going to school though. I went out with "Boofy Harry" one Friday night and threw up all over him. Anyway, Monday I went to school and I was awfully sick. Tuesday I couldn't take it any longer. Wednesday when I wasn't any better I went to Dr. Hard, Sr. You know I can't stand Dr. Jones. I took him a urine specimen. It was dark brown. When he examined it he said that I had a serious liver and kidney and gall bladder infection. When he looked at me he said that I had yellow jaundice and he put me in the hospital right away. He said that I was dehydrating, so he started feeding me glucose right away. But I'm O.K. now. I've lost ten or fifteen pounds, though, so it will take me some time to gain it back. I've missed a lot of school, too, so I hope that I don't fail anything. In any event, I will graduate in August at the very latest.

Your book came this afternoon. Thank you so much. It is beautiful all the way through, and it really was worth waiting for. I will always keep it and think of you.

We had a beautiful snow here Thursday. They closed schools a half day, and yesterday we didn't go at all. It's all melting now, though, and it's drizzly and messy.

It's ten-thirty now. I didn't have a date tonight, and I intend to stay up all night ~~answering~~ letters. Since I've been sick, I've let everything fall behind, and that's not good.

I don't know if anyone told you or not, but Uncle Leo came to see us last week. He asked about you. He seems to like Norfolk, and he looked very good. I will be glad when he gets his teeth fixed. That will be a big improvement in his looks.

Well, I guess I'd better close this letter and start on another. Write often -- I love to hear from you.

Thanks again for the book.

Your sis,
Alma

O happy soul, be thankful now and rest!
Heaven is a goodly land;
And God is love; and those he loves are blest;
Now thou dost understand;
The least thou hast is better than the best.

That thou didst hope for; now upon thine eyes
The new life opens fair;
Before thy feet the blessed journey lies
Through homelands everywhere;
And heaven to thee is all a sweet surprise.

There Is No Death

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forevermore.

There is no death! Although we grieve
When beautiful, familiar forms
That we have learned to love are torn
From our embracing arms.

Although with bowed and breaking heart,
With sable garb and silent tread,
We bear their senseless dust to rest,
And say that they are "dead."

They are not dead! They have but passed
Beyond the mists that blind us here
Into the new and larger life
Of that serener sphere.

They have but dropped their robe of clay
To put their shining raiment on;
They have not wandered far away
They are not "lost" nor "gone."

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear, immortal spirits tread.
For all the boundless universo
Is Life — there are no dead.

"Goodbye, till morning come again,"
We part, if part we must, with pain,
But night is short, and hope is sweet,
Faith fills our hearts, and wings our feet;
And so we sing the old refrain,
"Goodbye, till morning come again."

"Goodbye, till morning come again,"
The thought of death brings weight of pain.
But could we know how short the night
That falls, and hides them from our sight,
Our hearts would sing the old refrain,
"Goodbye, till morning come again."
